

TERMS OF AGREEMENT

1. The booking customer is responsible for everything that happens during the session without regard to who in the booking customer's party did something wrong, damaged something, or whatever...the booking customer is responsible and will be charged for the damage. We will collect your drivers license number during booking or scan a copy at your entrance to the studio.

2. Deposit:

3. The time you book includes set up and 15 minutes additional at the end of your scheduled time to tear down and complete whatever it takes to return the studio to its original, organized, and clean condition. As a suggestion, you may want to set an alarm on your cell phone to help you remember the time so that no additional fees are incurred. See below, rules and regulations.

4. As a courtesy, we will provide one background for renters. Using the available background paper is free with all rentals. If you need a specific background color, please contact our studio manager and she can work with you. Additional backgrounds needed during a shoot are available at a $25 fee each. We kindly ask that you ask your clients not to walk across background paper when they are not being photographed on it, or use baby oil and then lay on the paper.

5. Cancellation Policy. Please understand and know you are committed to your reservation. In the event that you need to cancel, you will be able to reschedule your time with us but the booking deposit will not be refunded.
